Synopsis: Dr. Coppelius, an inventor, creates a life size doll in which he displays as if she is a young village maiden. Franz, a young village boy, becomes infatuated with Coppelia setting aside his heart's true desire, Swanhilda. Swanhilda and her friends break into the Toy Shoppe to discover that Dr. Coppelius's village maiden is actually a doll. Swanhilda switches places with the doll to show Franz his mistake, in an effort to win his heart again.
